

“Sweet Spots”

The lowest string requires heavier and slower bow weight.
The highest string requires faster bow speed, but the “tires” must still remain on the road.
Sweet Spots are relative and not the exact distances shown.